

Text for Deputy SENCo job

Fairley House School

Deputy SENCo required for September 2019 based at our Senior School in SW1

We are looking for a committed and enthusiastic Deputy SENCo to join our team based at the senior site in SW1. You will be working with our SENCo to ensure that our pupils have their specific learning difficulties met. Our collaborative team involves Educational Psychologists, Speech and Language Therapists, Occupational Therapist and specialist teachers, and our approach is transdisciplinary.

Candidates will have experience in delivery of provision to children with specific learning difficulties. Good interpersonal skills are essential to the role, it would be desirable to have the National Award for SENCOs or be willing to undertake this course.

WE offer a generous CPD package and encourage staff to undertake the OCR level 5 qualification. Salary is dependent upon qualification and experience, we have our own salary scale which reflects working in central London, and we also offer a pension scheme, enhanced holidays and free school lunch.

Fairley House is London's leading day school for children with Specific learning difficulties.

To find out more please visit our website www.fairleyhouse.org.uk or telephone HR on 0207 976 5456. Application form only – no CVs. Closing date is 10th May with interviews hopefully week commencing 20th May.
